ADOLPH NDIMBO

Adolph was born in January 10, 2005 in Songea, Tanzania. He lived in Sanangula with his mother Mariam Osmunda Haule.

His father passed away shortly after he was born leaving him with his mother who was very ill. As her illness continued to get worse, she could no longer care for him in any capacity. At four years old, Adolph's mother and a friend began to search for a safe place to send him before she passed. In June 2009 Adolph was accepted by SWACCO, the local orphanage solely supported by the Mwangaza Jitegemee Foundation.

The Foundation provides him with food, clothes, medical and clinical services and all of his schooling needs including, tuition, school uniform, books and school supplies. Currently he is in Standard One at Sanangula Primary School. Adolph wishes to become a teacher, he is doing very well in school, and after school he likes reading books, playing, assisting in the gardening chores. He enjoys watching the older boys and will follow along to "help" with their chores. He is very compassionate with his friends he will fit well in the society.
