JUDITH TEMBO

Judith was born in June 1, 1993 in Songea; she lives in Mkuzo with her grandmother Martina Chilinga. Both parents passed away shortly after Judith was born leaving her with her grandmother. When Judith was 14, her grandmother's health began to deteriorate quickly. Together they looked for help and found SWACCO. SWACCO is the Songean Women and Children's Care Organization in Songea, Tanzania. They are solely supported by the Mwangaza Jitegeme Foundation.

The Foundation provides her with food, clothes, medical and clinical services as well as all of her schooling needs. Judith has completed form four secondary education at Luwawasi secondary school and she expects to join teaching college late this year. She is doing well and currently she volunteers as a teacher at SWACCO orphanage and at St. Freda nursery school. Judith is so compassionate with her friends she will fit well in the society.

Her dream is to be a teacher at the future orphanage site, Blessings Village. She is very thankful for SWACCO and MJF for helping her to realize her dreams and help her through school. She still has a few years of University studies to achieve this and SWACCO and MJF want to make her dreams come true.
